

Seminar on the application of Labors Code and newly issued guiding documents

ATS Law Firm, Human Resources Association and Vingroup co-organized a seminar on 11th June, 2015 on the application of Labors Code and newly issued guiding documents aiming to support human resources management officials of enterprises to be updated on new labor regulations, to share obstructive issues arisen during the implementation process and the practical settlement of labor disputes at enterprises.

The Seminar was held with the participation of about 100 guests who are the human resources management officials of Vietnamese groups and enterprises, foreign direct invested enterprises in Vietnam.