

Mediation Services

We appreciate that in some instances, where a dispute has arisen, the client's preferred course may be to settle without formal (and costly) litigation proceedings. We have an experienced offering in the area of mediation to support clients in these circumstances.

We are available to mediate cases of all kinds, be they local or international: including commercial/contractual, corporate governance, banking and employment disputes.