

Associates

ATS Lawyers is a team comprising of its core members and the associates. We are proud to have in our team, associates who have graduated from the premium law schools and the law faculties of prominent universities of Vietnam. They bring with them their years of experience and exposure of different levels from various areas of practice. This enhances and attributes our image before the clients.

Our associates are well-trained and responsible team members. They possess good communication skills and interact with our clients efficiently with responsiveness. They complement to ATS with their professional knowledge and proper understanding of client's requirements.

We look forward to work with many more associates who have a sound background in our areas of practice and are willing to build their career with us.
